My dear Sisters:

Sue and I were very pleased to receive your letter sometime ago. We are certainly happy that Sister Law is now improving and pray that her condition will continue to improve that she may be about her normal activities. We think of you very much, due to the fact that your help to me came at a time when it was needed the greatest.

I was very sorry to hear of Troy Hicks and her situation. I do hope that the treatment that she is now receiving will be beneficial. Please give her father and mother my best regards.

It seems that your letter carried more bad news than it did good, and again I must say I was sorry to hear of the Austins' case. I was afraid Brother and Sister Austin would never fully recover from the death of their son, and it seems that such is now true. Please tell them I wrote you and inquired about them and sent them my very best wishes.

I know that the entire area received a great shock at the passing of Brother White Horn.

Our work here continues to be very successful. Our Wednesday evening meetings average between 140 and 160. Last Sunday morning our attendance was 276. We have had six additions in the last month.

Brother W. A. Bradfield is to conduct our meeting this fall and our singer is from Greenville, Miss. - Brother Chuck Lucas.

We appreciate your letters a great deal and covet your prayers. We send you our best regards and hope this letter finds both of you in good health.

Your brother in Christ,

John Allen Chalk
